

Enterprise programmes rarely fail on the technology. They fail on alignment.

I lead complex digital and IT programmes to delivery, across the stakeholders who never quite agree. Ten years turning stalled, multi-stakeholder programmes into delivered outcomes, for global names across telco, insurance, fintech, education, and industry.

WHAT YOU GET

01

Delivery in complexity

Multi-stakeholder, multi-country enterprise programmes delivered across competing priorities and regulated environments.

02

Both sides of delivery

Fluent in traditional programme governance and Agile product ownership. I fit your team's operating model rather than forcing one.

03

Business-level judgement

MBA-backed, consultancy-led thinking. I keep delivery tied to the business case, not just the backlog.
